REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's Terminal Disclaimer has overcome the rejection of obviousness double patenting. Applicant's statement of common ownership has overcome the 35 USC 103 rejection over Hinkel. With respect to the 35 USC 102(e) rejection over Hinkel, applicant's arguments state that Hinkel does not teach breaking by electrolytes. Since the claim does not specifically teach the use of electrolytes, it is clarified that the deletion of the use of a method involving the rupture of an encapsulated coating distinguishes over Hinkel. With respect to Qu, applicants amendment such that an amount of precursor sufficient to reduce the viscosity of the fluid is used, is found to be distinguishing, since Qu does not teach or suggest the utility of an amount sufficient for such use.

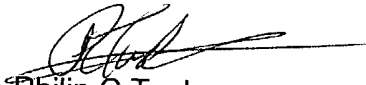

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
